

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses our public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the
airwaves, garbage
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of propaganda for
the owners
candidates, it's more important that we see real people
from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Please review Sinclair Broadcastings
attempt to swing
this election and
insist that they provide equal time
when airing
political programming like
"Stolen Honor."
Thank you.
